Subject: In re Pork - Production of Defendant Discovery Materials
Dear Counsel,
As you are aware, we are in the process of gathering discovery correspondence and previous document and data productions to send to the MDL DAPs. Would the MDL DAPs be amenable to designating one person to receive these materials on behalf of all the MDL DAPs? Given that some Defendants have produced dozens of production volumes, it would save considerable time and expense for Defendants to produce the materials to just one (or a few) designated individuals rather than generating file share access information for each MDL DAP. Please also let us know if there is one addressee and physical address to which Defendants can send hard drives. Relatedly, would the DAPs please send us a service list listing all MDL DAP counsel that should be served with any papers? Attached is the most recent service list for Defendants.
Thanks,

Lindsey Strang
